National Police Week
May 10–16, 2026

WHEREAS the Lancaster City Bureau of Police a full-service police department that has provided law enforcement to the City of Lancaster since 1865; and,

WHEREAS the Bureau is the largest and only urban law enforcement agency in Lancaster County; and,

WHEREAS the Bureau believes community-oriented policing is the best way to serve the residents, visitors, neighborhoods, and businesses of Lancaster City, empowering its officers and civilian staff to build trust and form long-lasting relationships with those they serve; and,

WHEREAS the Bureau is committed to working collaboratively with all community members to solve important issues that help the Lancaster City community thrive; and,

WHEREAS the Office of Community Engagement works to engage with all residents of Lancaster City by providing ongoing opportunities to deliver feedback, discuss public safety challenges, and develop positive relationships with the Bureau; and,

WHEREAS Police Social Workers are an integral part of the Bureau's team, connecting our most vulnerable residents with needed support services and identifying new solutions to keep community members safe; and,

WHEREAS the Bureau values service, integrity, honor, courage, commitment, and duty; and,

WHEREAS the Lancaster City community is grateful for the services provided by the Bureau and its commitment to professional and personal excellence.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jaime Arroyo, Mayor of the City of Lancaster, Pennsylvania, do hereby proclaim the week of May 10–16, 2026, as National Police Week in the City of Lancaster. I encourage the community to celebrate the contributions the Lancaster City Bureau of Police have made to keeping the Lancaster City community safe for over 160 years.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand caused the seal of this City to be affixed.

Seal of the City of Lancaster Pennsylvania

SIGNATURE ON FILE

_____

Jaime Arroyo, Mayor
May 10, 2026